SusieCakes; Los Angeles

This California brand has mastered more than cake. Susan "Susie" Sarich opened her Brentwood bakery in 2006, with a minty-green design straight out of the 1950s and recipes (written on index cards) from her Midwestern grandmother. They are now the secret weapon behind eight SusieCakes stores. Sarich's simple pie highlights the pumpkin custard, which rises flush to the crust's edge. susiecakes.com
